Mo: Who is the one filing the law suit? Where is this filed? Illinois?

Sh: Yes. Did you get the papers?

Mo: More than one paper arrived and the rest didn't as the fax didn't have papers so it didn't....., it didn't finish....

Sh: No. It is not....., it is not a fax. It is supposed to be via mail.

Mo: No. I didn't get anything via mail.

Sh: Did Dalell send it to you via fax? No. It is supposed to be sent via mail. She sent it yesterday and it is supposed to get to you today, today or.... No, it will get to you tomorrow. The law suit is.....er, yes, it is in Chicago.

Mo: Ok.

Sh: It was filed in Chicago. It is from a family.....er, a Jewish family called Boim.

Mo: Yes.

Sh: Filed by an attorney called Nathan. He used to be Nixon's attorney long time ago. He is an Orthodox Jew, one of the people who wear a skull cap, thick glasses and long beards.....

Mo: Ok, good, excellent.

Sh: He is Kahane's attorney.

Mo: Kahane's as well?

Sh: Yes.

Mo: The same guy?

Sh: Yes. So.....er, the same guy. So.....er, I mean, they say about them....., I mean, their firm is one of the strongest firms. Of course, his firm is in Washington. He is from Washington.

Mo: Hum.

Sh: So....er, we spoke with David Kohl who is the expert in the Constitutional....er, I mean, the law of....er. So, we spoke with him. He is the one who defended the ...UI eight, the youths who are in Los Angeles....

Mo: Yes, yes.

Sh:in more than one case, I mean. So, we got him on the line and John Bryant met with him in Washington, he had lunch with him yesterday....

Sh: Yes. For us, our public will not be stingy with us and....er, and the people are really..... We had an Open House over here on Monday and everybody came. They're supporting us and they're ready to stand by us. So, I mean, we're not afraid. I mean, afraid..... Of course, the only thing they wan....., the only thing they want is what they call the discovery. They want to gain access to our books and....er. So, I mean....er. I sent you yesterday the minutes of the last meeting we held.

Mo: Yes.

Sh: I wanted to write a note for you but I didn't want to. But, the....er, the....er, Abou Ibrahim, you have a lot of papers in Arabic. Right?

Mo: What is in them?

Sh: You know, I mean, meeting minutes and stuff like that. So, if you have someone around you selling lupine seeds¹, it is better to give them to him.

Mo: I have nothing at all in the first place since I....

Sh: Yes, anything. I took a look at all of these....er. Anything in Arabic. Thanks be to God, everything is documented in English.

Mo: Since the day I left New Jersey...., before I left and....er, you know, it is true that all of our papers are fine and there is nothing in them. But, I mean, the papers which are not needed and needless stuff.....

Sh: Anything, meeting minutes and stuff like that....er, all of it, all of it because we approve the English one only, Abou Ibrahim.

Mo: Yes.

Sh: Do you see what I'm saying?

Mo: Yes.

Sh: I have meeting minutes since the year '90. Thanks be to God, Lord of the Two Worlds. All of it is complete. Of course, they will request it. They will request all of it. So....er, er.... Let's do that. So, if you have a person or somebody selling lupine seeds¹ and you felt pity on him, give him some things from your end.

Mo: No, no. I don't.....er,

Sh: Yes, yes.

Mo: I will go back once more.

Sh: Yes, may God be pleased be with ever and always.

Mo: I'll take a look. It doesn't really matter.

Sh: Don't take anything lightly as there might be a name of something or a poor or a needy guy or something. You don't know.

Mo: Hum.

Sh: You don't know what their original intention.

Mo: Yes, yes.

Sh: You see what I'm saying? So....er, and God's willing, when I see you on 6/3, our legal point of view would be formatted by then.
